

2018 — ABHMS, ABEC and ABWM Reschedule Relocation

American Baptist Home Mission Societies, American Baptist Extension Corporation, American Baptist Women's Ministries Reschedule Relocation

VALLEY FORGE, PA (ABNS 10/11/18)—The American Baptist Extension Corporation (ABEC), American Baptist Women's Ministries (ABWM) and American Baptist Home Mission Societies (ABHMS)—including ABHMS' publishing ministry Judson Press—have rescheduled relocation of their King of Prussia, Pa., operations from the American Baptist Mission Center at 588 N. Gulph Road to 1075 First Ave. because of construction-related delays. The new moving dates are Oct. 24-26.

Offices at 1075 First Ave. are planned to open Oct. 29.

During the relocation, accessibility to staff and the availability of resources may not be as immediate as usual. However, throughout the moving process, ABEC will continue to respond to the needs of investors and borrowers, and Judson Press will be working to provide customers with resources such as "The Secret Place" devotional guide, "Journeys" curriculum and Christian books on many topics.

Judson Press customers may order products by calling the Judson toll-free number (800.458.3766), by visiting judsonpress.com or by using FAX (610.768.2107). As usual, payments for products may be sent to Judson Press, Lock Box 4385, P.O. Box 95000, Philadelphia, PA 19195-4385.

ABWM will respond to ministry requests and needs via email during the move. After Nov. 1, please send mail to 1075 First Ave., Suite C-210, King of Prussia, PA 19406.

American Baptist Women's Ministries is a Christ-centered ministry with a commitment to encourage and empower women and girls to serve God and to be leaders in their communities in the United States, Puerto Rico and beyond.

The American Baptist Extension Corporation was founded in 1959 to form a pool of invested funds to help build churches. Since then, churches financed through ABEC have prospered across the United States and Puerto Rico—by 2014, loans totaling more than $100 million had helped strengthen more than 1,600 churches for mission and ministry.

American Baptist Home Mission Societies partners with American Baptists to promote Christian faith, cultivate Christ-centered leaders and disciples, and bring healing and transformation to communities across the United States and Puerto Rico.
